REGENT DECEMBER MESSAGE

Dear Sisters:

Merry Christmas! We can be proud of our many charitable works and the love and support we have shown to each other this year. During the busy Christmas season, let us take a few moments to slow down and reflect upon our many blessings.

I would like to share with you one of my favorite passages from the works of Brother David Steindl-Rast, a 97 year-old author, scholar, and Benedictine monk. "We are never more than one grateful thought away from peace of mind." He further explained, "the root of joy is gratefulness...It is not joy that makes us grateful; it is gratitude that makes us joyful." This passage resonates with me as we prepare for the birth of Christ and look forward to 2024.

My Christmas wish is that we are blessed with joyfulness.

Blessings,
Yvette Manard

CARDS FOR A CURE 2023

All it takes is a Christmas card, a prayer and one dollar to help make Christmas a little more special for a child with cancer.

This year's recipient is 16 year-old Jaxon Kohl (JK) Medley. He was recently diagnosed with Metastatic BCOR Sarcoma and has begun chemotherapy at Children's Hospital in Alabama.

The goal this year is to brighten Christmas with 3,500 cards. I invite my CDA sisters to take a moment to write a card, say a prayer, enclose just one dollar bill and mail to:

Jaxon Kohl Medley
P.O. Box 760
Ashford, Alabama 36312

You can follow the progress on Facebook under Cards for a Cure 2023.

PRAYER OF POPE FRANCIS FOR THE JUBILEE

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified.

You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God.

Send your spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind.

We ask this of you, Lord Jesus, through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy; you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

PRAYERS – Karen Jones

PRAY THE ROSARY!

HELP US EDUCATE OUR CHILDREN

The Spirit also helps our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.

QUALITY OF LIFE: Linda Wilson-Davis
State Chairman: Andrea Rodriguez-Ochoa
National Chairman: Nancy Bambenek

I want to share this with you because some of you do not visit the National website to read the National Quarterly:

Quality of Life: We are a catholic women's organization that is susceptible to a SCAM.

Every one of us has the potential to be scammed as in 2022 the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) took in over 5.1 million reports. That's a lot of reported scams. Do not be embarrassed if you are one of those reporting a scam. We get scammed because we are Catholic Women who want to be there in a crisis or for a family member in need. It is just what we do and who we are.

Scammers are cunning, smart, and devious. The more we share, read and learn about scams the more we can stop them from swindling us from our assets. The better educated we are about scammers, the more able we will be to protect ourselves and our loved ones.

SCAM by definition is: "a fraudulent or a deceptive act or operation." Merriam-Webster

Rule Number One: Don't answer a phone call with an unknown number. The caller can leave a message and you can return the call. Even if the area code and prefix is the same as yours.

Rule Number Two: NEVER give out personal information to an unsolicited caller, texter or emailer.

Rule Number Three: If it sounds too good to be true, it is. Even if it appears to come from an organization or agency that you trust.

Rule Number Four: To prevent from being scammed, look for details. Unknown email, unknown phone number, big winnings and promises that are unbelievable. They are. You are being scammed.

Examples -

- There are very few true crises. When you receive a phone call, email or text from a family member with a so-called emergency/problem needing your money: take a deep breath, pray and start to ask questions. Which family member are you? You are waiting for them to give YOU a name. DO NOT offer a name to them. HANG UP when they cannot respond with an accurate response. If you find yourself overwhelmed or sucked in, tell them you will call them back shortly after consulting your attorney (real or not) or another family member. There is nothing so important that needs your immediate action. You can collect your thoughts and call that resource person for advice. Then return the call but only after you are sure there is a REAL problem that you can help with. We want you to use your assets wisely. -
- Don't open an email that comes to you from a sender that you do not recognize the sending address or has several odd characters or misspelling in the subject. These are red flags warnings. Heed them. -
- Another example would be an email asking you to go and get gift cards. This is usually to a big box store and once you have given them the code on the back of the card, they then will own them. This is another way to scam you out of your savings. Requesting you to wire money is also a part of a scam. -
- Scammers claim to be a part of a government agency such as the IRS, Medicare, Police etc. Government agencies will send you a letter with their official business and never demand you to give them your savings account or checking account number for a payment over the phone, through a text or email.

Report your experience to your local police department. Write down details of the phone call as best remembered. Save all the emails and text messages you have received from the scammer.

Books have been written on this topic, but I wanted to start you thinking about protecting yourself from the roaming wickedness and snares of the devil. This is a real battle for St. Michael the Archangel.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.
