NATIONAL SUPERVISOR ~ YVETTE GRIEGO

Greetings to the CDA Members of California,

Last September, our National Regent Susan Mone appointed me to serve as your National Supervisor. Having been a member of Catholic Daughters of the Americas for the past 20 years. I served as Local Court Regent for five years and serve as chairman of the different spokes on the Circle of Love. Elected to serve on the New Mexico State Board in the offices of Treasurer (two terms), Second Vice State Regent and First Vice State Regent and serving as State Regent during the Covid Pandemic. Which proved to be difficult thus forcing us to "think out of the box" to conduct the business of the State Court. Currently, I am in my second term as National Director. I have been assigned to serve as National Supervisor California State Court, Oregon State Court and Kentucky Territorial Court. I am also assigned to serve as the National JCDA/Youth Chairman for a second term.

Your State Officers are diligently planning and preparing for the 50th Biennial State Convention. I will attend this convention to assist with the Biennial CDA State Convention. The convention will be held in Visalia, CA on April 24-27, 2025. I look forward to meeting the many dedicated members of the California CDA Courts. The theme selected by State Regent Maria Santos-Silva is “Shining in the Light of Divine Mercy.”

Our National Board along with National Chaplain Father Erick Villa will be leading the prayers in Daily Reflections, Prayers & Actions Prayer Lenten booklet “The Peaceful Path of Hope.” This program will begin on March 5, 2025, and each day throughout Lent at 12:00pm Central Time on the National Catholic Daughters of the Americas Facebook Page. A National Board member will lead the daily prayer, Father Erick will be leading the prayer on Fridays throughout Lent. This Lenten Prayer Booklet can be purchased from the CDA Store on the National CDA website for $5.00. All CDA members are welcome and encouraged to join our National Facebook page for ongoing news and happenings within our National CDA organization. If you would like to become a member of our Facebook page, please complete the two questions; how long you have been a member and the name and number of the CDA court you belong to, city and state. Looking forward to a peaceful and prayerful Lenten Season as we prepare our hearts during this Jubilee Year for Pilgrims of Hope.

In Unity and Charity,

Yvette Griego

STATE REGENT ~ MARIA SANTOS-SILVA

“A journey is best measured in friends rather than miles.”

Tim Cahill's quote about traveling with friends

It is hard to believe that after my six-year journey, this will be my last article for the Golden State Tidings as a member of the California State Board; it was just six years ago when I filled out my paperwork to run for State Secretary. My family was coming off possibly the worst five years of our lives. We had taken in my sister-in-law, who desperately needed love, care, and safety. The conditions in which that event took place were sad beyond measure. But coming through that, I felt I was called to serve. Before those five years, I was always very active in my community, busy always finding a way to serve others. Once things settled down with what we had been through, my children were concerned that I had lost myself somewhere along the way and encouraged me to find another way to serve and find the life that I had loved again.

During that time, the state release came out, and they were looking for people to run for the state office. I filled out my paperwork and attended the state convention; little did I know that it would be a journey like no other. A journey that I needed and a journey that I knew had a purpose. The journey was not always easy, but along the way, the friends I made are now my lifelong sisters. As many of you know, I grew up in a small town in Central California. Even though I went away to college and traveled, I never truly experienced culture or individuals outside of my small area. I remember the first time we were at a board meeting; we went to Mass in Ontario and walked into a beautiful church. The Second Vice State Regent, Tess, leaned over and whispered in my ear. “Every time you enter a church for the first time, you get to make a special request—a special prayer.” That simple whisper in my ear has significantly impacted everything I have learned, experienced, and known over the last six years. You see, this country girl from Central California has been given the opportunity over the past six years to celebrate Mass in some of the most beautiful churches that California and the Nation have to offer. Whether in Grand Cathedrals or Simple Chapels, I made a special prayer request every time I entered a new one, which resonated in my heart. I fondly remember our departed Tess whenever I walk into a new church and make that special request. Many of those special requests revolved around my family, and I must tell you, I have truly felt the Blessed Mother's response to those requests in my daily life.

As many of you have seen at CDA events, my husband Joe has supported my CDA journey. Last year, when we discovered an unexpected health issue, he made it a point to drive and attend every event he could with me. The time we spent traveling and the moments he shared with my CDA sisters brought us closer; he better understood why we do what we do. I witnessed a side of my husband I had never seen before. He began stepping outside of his comfort zone more comfortably, whether it be having to sit at a head table next to a Bishop or attending an event at Court Compton where they make him stand up and address the crowd or driving in LA traffic to get someone to LAX on time, he always had a big smile on his face, and it was only I who knew how uncomfortable he was. I am so proud of him for being a good sport, and as time went on, he became more comfortable at these events and learned to enjoy them. This six-year journey was one that I will remember for my entire life, and my membership in the Catholic Daughters of the Americas completely defines the person the Catholic woman I have become. As I transition into your Immediate Past State Regent role, I plan to ensure that our members are aware of and participate in the Circle of Love.

I am embarrassed to say that before my involvement on the State Board, I did not know what the Circle of Love was or what it meant to our organization and our membership, the communities, and the individuals we serve. Circle of Love is who we are, and for the retention and recruitment of new members, we all need to become fluent in understanding and talking about what this program is and why we do what we do. "In the same way, your light must shine so that it can be seen by others; this will enable them to observe your good works and give praise to your Father in heaven." Matthew 5:16. This verse I chose for this State Board term was one that always stood out to me as important for all to shine in the good work they participate in. But as my CDA journey evolved, I realized that, in fact, it is linked to the Circle of Love program, which I have come to want to promote. The Circle of Love programs and competitions for our Courts are a way to allow Courts to Shine Their Lights on a level that not only enables them to get the recognition they deserve but also allows sister courts to learn how to serve their own communities better by reviewing the winning entries.

My CDA State Board journey is measured by only six years. But the Hope, Faith, Love, and Friendship I have gained during this time are immeasurable. My faith as a Catholic Woman has expanded to such a great love for our Catholic Church, our Blessed Mother, our organization, the Catholic Daughters of the Americas. Thank all of you so much for your love, support, and friendship on this journey. I look forward to seeing you all at our 50th Biennial CA State Convention in Visalia. Those who will be attending should expect to experience professional business meetings conducted within a weekend of "Retreat-Like Spirituality." My goal is for all of us to leave that weekend spiritually refreshed, with important business completed. Most importantly, we have many new friends to add to our journey. Thank You, and God Bless

Maria Santos-Silva

FIRST VICE REGENT ~ LORINE BAKOWSKY

Happy Spring and the Mercy and Hope of our Lord Jesus be with you, Wow, there was a lot in that greeting, but as I write this article, our dear, Beloved Pope Francis is ill and hospitalized. I have been constantly praying for God's mercy on Pope Francis, and I have great hope that he will heal and be strong enough to return to his normal routine. It occurred to me that I also often pray for all our CDA members to be well, happy and loved. I also hope for a great future in our organization, and I look forward to the upcoming convention.

We are blessed this year at convention because it falls on the second Sunday after Easter and it is Divine Mercy Sunday. Our whole convention includes many opportunities for prayer, confession and meditation. Whether you are able to attend convention or not, please join us spiritually on April 26 th at 9pm as we close the convention with the Divine Mercy Chaplet and Evening Prayer.

Did I mention prayer? In March, we celebrate St. Patrick who was a great example of how prayer can give you courage, strength, peace and insight. It also lead to his call to serve God. After escaping slavery in Ireland, God called to Patrick to serve others and return to Ireland. Like Patrick, this call must have surprised him as does God's call to us. It can be a prompting to take a path we might never have considered if left to ourselves. Patrick teaches us to hold ourselves in readiness for the Lord's surprising call in our lives. This call may even be a position of Leadership in our organization. Convention is the end of one leadership term, but it begins another, one we Hope is full of Love and Mercy.

Pax,

Lorine Bakowsky

SECOND VICE REGENT ~ SHERI KANAGAWA

With Spring right around the corner so is the Season of Lent. As we all know Lent is a 40- day period of reflection, repentance and fasting that leads up to Good Friday with Jesus dying on the cross and the Morning of Easter when Jesus rises from the dead. Lent is the perfect time to form live giving habits and give up others. As a teenager or even young adult I would give up sodas, candy or sweets. But there are lots of things we can do instead of giving up things. Here are a few examples of things you can do for Lent:

- 1) Give something up: besides the obvious you could give up negative things, speaking poorly of others or even procrastinating. You could also make a positive swap: like praying the rosary instead of watching TV, or read an amazing Catholic book like, "A GIFT OF JOY AND HOPE" by Pope Francis, for the National CDA Zoom Book Study starting March 10. There is also a Daily Lenten Book called "The Peaceful Path to Hope" which will be led by Father Erick and the National Officers.
- 2) Join a Spiritual Challenge. You could create a small challenge with your CDA sisters and friends, sign up for a local Bible Study or start your own.

- 3) Deepen your Prayer time. Catholics often say special Lenten Prayers such as the Stations of the Cross, Ash Wednesday, Popular Litanies, morning and evening prayers or even Adoration. Every Friday during, so many churches offer doing the Stations of the Cross and what a way to embrace the prayers.
- 4) Instead of giving up something, do something positive for others in need. My mom sews 40 dresses during lent to give to "Dress A Girl", or volunteer helping others. Another thought is to start an exercise plan and while exercising daily say the rosary. This way you improve your health and reach deeper in your spirituality.

Your main goal for Lent is to take your spiritual Life seriously. Take these 40 days of Lent to explore God's dream for your life and it can change everything. ARE YOU READY?

Hoping I see every one of you the week after Easter at our California 50th Biennial State Convention in Visalia, California.

SETATE SECRETARY ~ YVONNE CONNOLLY

In January, I attended my home court, Santa Barbara 293 annual retreat. The theme was Gratitude, so I thought I would share some of that and my own thoughts on Gratitude with you.

The Ultimate Act of gratitude is the Eucharist. This is something we need to remind ourselves of during the forty days of Lent. These forty days are our walk with Jesus, our footsteps should be there with His on that walk. During our walk we should reflect on the times when we have shown gratitude and when we have failed to do so. When have we shown Him gratitude for all the blessings, He has showered upon us or in the trials He has challenged us with. St. Mother Theresa tells us "The best way to show my gratitude to God is to accept everything, even my problems, with joy." Remember. Jesus was not only faithful to the Lord's command, but He was also, always grateful. All of us know this certainly is not easy but something to strive for.

During Lent let us set aside a time every day that is our time to pray. Gratitude and peace go hand in hand. We all need peace in our hearts, lives, families and our world. You can see I love to quote St Mother Theresa; I believe this quote deserves repeating, The best way to show my gratitude to God is try accepting everything, even my problems with joy. This is my goal for the 40 days of Lent, maybe we can try this together.

I am grateful for all my Catholic Daughter Sisters, and I wish you all Peace and Blessed Joy filled Easter.

Yvonne Connolly

It seems like it was just Christmas and New Years, but here we are approaching the Easter and Lent season. During Lent most people give up something for Lent. I am proposing instead of giving up something - adding something to your day. Read a passage a day. Below are some to get you started. Being Regent of a court over 100 years old, I come across many old things and some of them remind me of the people who have passed through our court. One of my members passed away this summer and her husband keeps bringing me CDA things and in it I found the following:

Emergency Phone Numbers

When in sorrow...	When you are in danger...
Call John 14	Call Psalm 91
When you have sinned...	When God seems far away...
Call Psalm 27	Call Psalm 139
When you worry...	When your faith needs stirring...
Call Matthew 6:19-34	Call Hebrews 11
When you are lonely and fearful...	When you are bitter and critical...
Call Psalm 23	Call I Corinthians 13
When you are down and out...	When you want peace and rest...
Call Romans 8:31	Call Matthew 11:25-30
When you want courage for a task...	If you are depressed...
Call Joshua 1	Call Psalm 27
If people seem unkind...	If your pocketbook is empty...
Call John 15	Call Psalm 37
If you want to be fruitful...	For dealing with fear...
Call John 15	Call Psalm 38
For security...	For reassurance...
Call Psalm 121:3	Call Psalm 145:18
For understanding of Christianity...	For assurance...
Call II Corinthians 5:15-49	Call Mark 8:35

Please Note: Emergency numbers may be dialed direct. No operator assistance is needed. All lines to heaven are open 24 hours a day! Feed your Faith and Doubt will starve to death.

EDUCATION ~ Cheryl Vitali ~ Cheryl.vitali@gmail.com

He is Risen, Let the World Rejoice!

In California winter is brief and already there are active signs of growth and life even after the leaves have fallen. So even though most of us have taken down our Nativities, we will soon be entering my favorite part of the year, the Lenten season leading to Easter Sunday.

Soon Courts will be finishing Circle of Love Entries and sending them to Chairman. My mail will soon be filling up with the Education entries. Please send scholarship entries to our State Regent. I am thoroughly looking forward to seeing your individual entries, court entries, and setting up the committee to make the individual awards. Email me if you have any questions.

My apologies for missing the last Golden States Tidings as I love writing these short articles. Things were rather complicated this fall, and my husband had several health issues occur which are now, praise God, all resolving at this point. That said, there were far too many doctor appointments and frankly my focus on the task had been impacted. I cannot thank God enough for all the answers to prayer. I hope all of you had a very blessed Christmas season filled with friends and family.

So, I am joyfully looking forward to Easter and our upcoming convention in April. It will be so wonderful to see all my Catholic Daughter sisters. The convention is so energizing, and one comes back with so much new enthusiasm for what is possible. Think of it like planting bulbs in the fall that will blossom in the spring and multiply. I do love gardening, and I love my garden surprising me. Faith does that, it really surprises you in how it carries one through difficulties and joyous occasions. How does one even function without the Lord?

I am looking forward to sharing with you something truly special that the groundwork was started a year ago. It would take longer than this article to explain yet right now all our Court is involved with other members of our parish going through a very special consecration, and I cannot wait to tell you more about this at the convention. This is something I pray will be done by Catholic Daughter Courts and Parishes across the nation. The consecration powerful and focuses on the center of our Lord's passion, resurrection, and purpose in coming to be born in a manger in Bethlehem, it is "33 Days to Eucharistic Consecration" and I will share more about this very special consecration at the convention.

The Education theme is about how we can forgive others. We can forgive because we are forgiven, praise God, He is risen, let the world rejoice!

LEADERSHIP ~ Ismaela Muniz-Heiden ~ Ismaela.muniz@gmail.com

Blessings CDA Sisters in Christ!

As we enter this Lenten Liturgical Season, we are also entering a season of change as to our CDA Leaders. It's a time to reflect and pray unceasingly for God's guidance as to how to become holy and where to serve.

My term as your State Leadership will be coming to an end and I can't thank God and the State Board enough for this opportunity. It's always a bit nerve racking when you're called upon to do something new and get out of your comfort zone, but it has truly proven to be a great learning and spiritual experience. I want to thank all of you that I've had the opportunity to meet and assist where needed. I also want to thank you for the warm and loving reception when I've had the pleasure of attending either one of your monthly meetings or events.

It seems that God is always asking us to prepare and become better versions of ourselves and that's how I look at this Lenten Season, as well as the season of new CDA local, state and nationwide Officers.

This is truly a time of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Although the Lenten season begins on Ash Wednesday and ends at sundown on Holy Thursday, I believe we can continue the practice throughout the year. Just like serving in a CDA Leadership position, we can continue to serve in our Leadership capacities no matter what role we hold locally, statewide and nationwide.

Prayer, fasting and almsgiving can be practiced all year long by spending time with our Heavenly Father in constant prayer, fasting because He has blessed us in abundance, and almsgiving by gifting and sharing the God given talents He blesses us with everyday.

May we find this Lenten Season truly a time of change, sacrifice and sharing of God's love and blessings.

Again, thank you for the opportunity of serving as your CA State Leadership Chairman and I look forward to not only meeting more of my CDA Sisters, but also spending some time with you either at one of your Court's monthly meetings, events, but also at the State Convention in April!

Please remember, I'm still 'Here to Help (H2H)!', so don't hesitate to reach out to me.

Blessings to you and all of yours!

Ismaela Muniz-Heiden

FAMILY ~ Laura McQuoid ~ L_mcquoid@yahoo.com

After extensive planning, I sent fifteen sets of information to our CDA courts by regular mail. With step one completed, I prepared to wait for responses. However, a fire in Southern California prompted me to review the affected areas. Adjustments were made, shifting from regular mail to emails, phone calls, and then Facebook posts. Despite these changes, an unforeseen challenge arose.

Communication

Imagine you are playing a game of catch with a friend. The ball represents a message. If you never throw the ball back, the game comes to a standstill, and your friend is left waiting, unsure of what to do next. Similarly, when we receive an text or email, it is like someone tossing the ball to us. A simple response, even if it is just "Thanks" or "Got it," keeps the game going.

The power of one word. You might think that a one-word response is insignificant, but it can carry a lot of weight. It can provide the necessary feedback to move a conversation or task forward. It is like a small nudge that keeps things on track and ensures that everyone is on the same page.

While I do not have an answer on how to handle this modern fast paced age of communication, I have become accustomed to a constant stream of notifications, messages, and updates. It is easy to feel overwhelmed by the sheer volume of communication, responding to emails and texts, even with a single word, is more important than we realize. Just taking a moment to respond can make all the difference.

Responding to emails and texts, even with just one word, it is a small yet powerful way to maintain effective communication, show respect, build trust, and manage expectations. It keeps the line of communication open, reduces anxiety, and spreads positivity. So, the next time you receive a message, remember that a quick response can make a difference. After all, it is the little things that often have the greatest impact.

MEMBERSHIP/EXTENSION – Central ~ Kathi Morris ~ Kathi.Morris51@comcast.net

Greetings fellow Catholic Daughters.

As I write this our beloved Pope Francis is in the hospital with double pneumonia. Pope Francis is the seventh Pope in my lifetime and one of the most personable. I found an article written by Hannah Brockhaus that I would like to quote (in part) to pay homage to the head of the Holy See and the first Pope from the Society of Jesus.

"In his message for Lent 2025, Pope Francis emphasized the importance of living one's life as a constant journey of conversion, choosing to walk in peace and hope aside one's fellow humans. "May the hope that does not disappoint, the central message of the jubilee, be the focus of our Lenten journey toward the victory of Easter."

He also quoted St. Paul's exclamation in the first letter to the Corinthians: "Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?"

The pontiff wrote that this Lent is an opportunity to consider three areas where one may be in greater need of conversion: journeying with others, being synodal, and having hope.

"A first call to conversion," he said, "comes from the realization that all of us are pilgrims in this life; each of us is invited to stop and ask how our lives reflect this fact. Am I really on a journey, or am I standing still, not moving, either immobilized by fear and hopelessness or reluctant to move out of my comfort zone? Am I seeking ways to leave behind the occasions of sin and situations that degrade my dignity?"

On the virtue of hope, Pope Francis quoted the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which calls hope the "sure and steadfast anchor of the soul."

"Thanks to God's love in Jesus Christ, we are sustained in the hope that does not disappoint," the pope said, adding that hope "moves the Church to pray for 'everyone to be saved' (1 Tm 2:4) and to look forward to her being united with Christ, her bridegroom, in the glory of heaven."

He recalled a prayer of St. Teresa of Ávila, to "Hope, O my soul, hope. You know neither the day nor the hour. Watch carefully, for everything passes quickly, even though your impatience makes doubtful what is certain, and turns a very short time into a long one."

Francis said a good Lenten exercise and examination of conscience would be to compare one's life to a migrant or foreigner, "To learn how to sympathize with their experiences and in this way discover what God is asking of us so that we can better advance on our journey to the house of the Father."

He also encouraged Catholics to be more synodal by journeying with others while avoiding self-absorption, exclusion, oppressing and excluding others, or being envious and hypocritical.

"Let us all walk in the same direction, tending toward the same goal, attentive to one another in love and patience," he urged.

Pope Francis said the call to hope and trust in God and in eternal life is also an important aspect of Lenten conversion. Some questions to ponder include: "Am I convinced that the Lord forgives my sins? Or do I act as if I can save myself? Do I long for salvation and call upon God's help to attain it? Do I concretely experience the hope that enables me to interpret the events of history and inspires in me a commitment to justice and fraternity, to care for our common home and in such a way that no one feels excluded?"

"This Lent, God is asking us to examine whether in our lives, in our families, in the places where we work and spend our time, we are capable of walking together with others, listening to them, resisting the temptation to become self-absorbed and to think only of our own needs?"

Let us continue to pray for our beloved Pope asking that God's will be done.

Let us pray for each other as we begin our Lenten journey. May we make concerted efforts to become holy women modeled after our beloved Pope – forgiving, humble, and kind.

Kathi Morris

Dear CDA Sisters,

As we approach the State Convention, I would like to share information related to upcoming bylaws voting and provide a summary of motions that will and/or may be used throughout the business meeting. The Bylaws committee has received and reviewed your submissions, held discussions, and guided correcting the format within the required deadline. The committee will present these Bylaw changes to the assembly for your discussion and a 2/3 vote of those in attendance.

Why is the 2/3 vote different from a Majority vote? The 2/3 rd vote is required for the adoption of any motion that: Suspends or modifies a rule of order already adopted | Takes away a membership or office | Closes, limits, or extends debate | Closes nominations. A Majority, according to RONR, is 50 percent plus 1 and is based on the number of members present. Example: 1000 votes, the majority = 501 votes. Note: The state convention does not allow voting by proxy votes. This is another reason we count delegates after breaks and each morning to ensure the correct numbers needed for each voting session. What if you abstain from a vote? p. 66 of RONR In Brief explains this: "s an abstention is not a vote and is not counted as a vote

"Convention Debate Protocol. Microphones will be set up within the assembly, which will indicate where speakers will stand to either speak in favor of or against the motion on the floor. The proper protocol when approaching the microphone is to greet the Monitor, who will maintain the order in which you approach the mic. and verify that you are only addressing the motion at hand. To allow for fair debate, the pro/con speakers will alternate until there are no more pro speakers.

Delegates remember this order of approach:

- 1) Approach and verify Pro or Con with the Monitor
- 2) Wait to be recognized by the State Regent
- 3) Speak into the microphone, "Worthy Regent, my name (from) Court Name/Number and I am speaking for/against this motion because..."

NOTE: Timekeepers will let you know when your time is up, and you must stop when your time is up.

You are not allowed to speak more than twice to address the same motion. The first person to speak in favor of the motion is the one who brought it to the floor.

To further understand the process of making a motion, amending motions, laying a motion on the table, or referring to the committee, please use this link to a Roberts Rules of Order "Cheat Sheet" Affiliate Resource Roberts Rules of Order Cheat Sheet and Guide.pdf

See you in April and have a blessed Lenten journey to a beautiful Easter Season!

Share Your Faith and be “Pilgrims of Hope”

Our Holiness Pope Francis encourages Christians to keep the spark of Hope” alive through prayer and action. He calls for Christians to be messengers of hope for others. As Catholic Daughters of the Americas, we proudly live our faith and through our actions. We offer support and hope for our Sisters, families, parishes and communities.

In this Jubilee Year, how can we share this message and promote the good works of the Catholic Daughters? How can we reach others in this modern world of media and communication vehicles? The good news is that we have excellent modern communication tools!

I encourage all of my CDA Sisters to share with each other and our faith community by becoming familiar with and interacting with our communication tools, including:

GOLDEN STATE TIDINGS EDITOR ~ Karen Jones ~ kdj4237308@gmail.com

Share what your court is doing with your CDA Sisters. Send in Your Articles! Share with your Sisters! Your articles or updates can be sent either in email format with the text in the body of the email or as an attachment. (I DO NOT SHORTEN YOUR ARTICLES).

I have enjoyed doing the Golden State Tidings and sharing the information about what is happening from our courts in California. When I was asked to become the editor by our Immediate Past State Regent Mary Beasley, I was honored. I was talking to a Past State Regent Bea Abshear (she was a past GST Editor) and she told me that I would do a great job as the editor. I will always use your entire article; I do not want to shorten them because I do not know what part is more important.
